We must speak with iteration Of the queer infatuation Of the people of each station Who protest against the heat Of common stoves and fuel That will cook the cook like gruel. Vapor stoves are not so cruel They cook only what you eat.

A DOUBLE WEDDING.

A beautiful double wedding took place at Calvary Baptist Church yesterday morning, the contracting parties being Mr. W. C. Saunders and Miss Tillie Lunsford, and Dr. Wm. E. Meredith and Miss Marion Saunders. By the hour appointed, 7:30, the church was well filled with friends of the young people, who had come to witness the ceremony which would link their lives until the end. The ushers were Lee Lynn, J. P. Flippo, Gooch Vaughan and Walter Saunders, and promptly at the hour appointed the couples entered the church. They were met at the altar by Revs. Wm. Lunsford and L. G. Broughton, who performed the ceremony in a most beautiful and impressive manner. Immediately after the ceremony the couples were driven to the depot, where they boarded the 7:50 o'clock train for points West.

Mr. Saunders is chief clerk to W. B. Beville, general passenger agent of the Norfolk and Western railway, and at present the popular superintendent of the Calvary Baptist Sunday-school. His bride is the accomplished daughter of Charles Lunsford, of this city, and has a host of friends. Dr. Meredith is a practicing physician of Hanover county, and is very popular. His bride is well known in this city and highly esteemed. They were the recipients of many and useful presents and the large crowd and hearty congratulations attested the esteem in which they were held. The church was beautifully decorated with potted plants and every one present were unanimous in their verdict that this was one of the prettiest double weddings ever held in the city.

A LIVELY FIGHT.

The wanted quid of the neighborhood of Bonner's restaurant on Salem avenue was seriously disturbed yesterday morning. Clerk E. S. Riddick and Calvin Totley, the colored waiter, became involved in a fight which might have resulted very seriously. Two gentlemen came into the dining room and ordered breakfast. Mr. Riddick gave the order to Totley and as the gentlemen were in a hurry and Totley was very slow, he went back to ascertain the cause of his tardiness. Totley didn't like this, and after a few words struck at Riddick with a meat saw, inflicting a very severe wound on the side of his head nearly severing his ear. Riddick secured a clever and went for the negro. Blood flowed freely and the fight was getting very warm when Officer Johnson stepped in and with assistance of some gentlemen bystanders got the combatants separated. Their wounds were dressed and they were taken to the police court where they will answer before Judge Woods this morning.

MOONSHINE WHISKEY.

Bob Thornton, a colored drayman, was before Judge Woods yesterday morning on a charge of resisting an officer and having unstamped whiskey in his possession. The night before Officer Locke ney discovered ten gallons of whiskey in Thornton's dray and upon examination it was found to be unstamped. Mr. Locke at once attempted to arrest the negro, but he resisted the arrest so violently that it was with difficulty he was finally landed. It is not known definitely who the whiskey belongs to, but the officers have a suspicion Thornton was fined $10 for resisting an officer and bound over on $100 bond to appear before the commissioners next Monday at Salem.

A QUIET WEDDING.

Mr. O. D. Kessler, of Monroe county, W. Va., and Miss Jennie Black, were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. John Black, on Tinker creek, yesterday afternoon. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. A. Barnhardt, of Vinton, a most elegant dinner was served to the "bride couple," and the guests who were present. After the dinner congratulations were extended and Mr. and Mrs. Kessler drove to this city, where they embarked on the noon train for their home in West Virginia. Mr. Kessler was formerly a resident of Roanoke county.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

Night before last as George Raymond was coming from Hotel Roanoke to board the late train, he stepped on a plank in the platform, which gave way, throwing him down and breaking his leg near the thigh. Mr. Raymond is from Salt Lake City, and was on his way to Natural Bridge when the accident happened. He was removed to Hotel Roanoke, where medical aid was summoned and at last reports was resting as easily as could be expected. In anticipation of a law suit the railroad company had the spot photographed and to prevent further accidents the rotten planks were removed and replaced by new ones.

Fifty Years Ago.

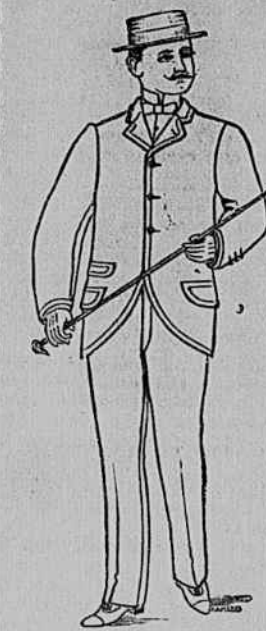

This is the stamp that the letter bore which carried the story far and wide, of certain cure for the loathsome sore that bubbled up from the tainted tide of the blood below. And 'twas Ayer's name And his sarsaparilla, that all now know, That was just beginning its fight of fame With its cures of 50 years ago.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the original sarsaparilla. It has behind it a record for cures unequalled by any blood purifying compound. It is the only sarsaparilla honored by a medal at the World's Fair of 1893. Others imitate the remedy; they can't imitate the record.

50 Years of Cures.

Don't Be Tempted.....

into spending your money foolishly. GOOD, honest-made CLOTHING requires skill in its construction. $7 and $10 SUITS this week are the kind I want to talk to you about. The closer you inspect them the bigger the value looms up. It is fabric goodness and making goodness, besides the comfort, style and the superior fit and finish that makes them look so swell. You never see one of my coats stand off from the neck or sag like the ordinary garments. They fit close and feel like they were made for you.

WASH VESTS. NEGLIGE SHIRTS,

Every man needs some Wash Vests. They are very fashionable this season and look very natty—especially with Blue Serge Coats and Trousers. 75c to $3.00.

With separate Cuffs, Three-sleeve lengths, Colored Bosom and White Body—just what you need for the warm days, 50c, 75c and $1.

CRASH SUITS FOR COMFORT, $2.90 TO $8.00.

Ask the nobby dressers of Roanoke where they bought their Crash Suits. But if you are familiar with my superior make you'll know without asking. They can easily be distinguished from the ordinary make on account of the fit and finish.
